The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The lyrics are: "In you who are full of grace all cre - a - tion re - joic - - - es: both the con - gre - - ga - - - tions of an - gels and the hu - man race. O con - se - crat - ed tem - ple and spir - i - tu - al par - a - dise, the boast - of vir - - - gins, from you was God in - car - - - nate and be - came a child,"

In You Who Are Full of Grace - Anthimos (Brief Version)

He, our God Who ex - ist - ed be - fore the a - ges; for He made your womb a throne, and He made you more spa - cious than the heav - ens. In you who are full of grace all cre - a - tion re - joic - es. Glo - ry be to you.

Not if someone utters the words the psalm with his mouth, does that one sing to the Lord; but, all who send up the psalmody from a clean heart, and who are holy, maintaining righteousness toward God, these are able to sing to God, harmoniously guided by the spiritual rhythms.

-St. Basil the Great
